

1. Name (and preferred, if not obvious):

2. What are you interested in learning this semester?

3. What applications are you most excited about?

4. What's your background, formal or otherwise, in statistics?

5. Which of the following are you generally familiar with? t-tests, linear regression, Python or R, GitHub

6. Is there anything else I need to know?

---

1. Name (and preferred, if not obvious):

2. What are you interested in learning this semester?

3. What applications are you most excited about?

4. What's your background, formal or otherwise, in statistics?

5. Which of the following are you generally familiar with? t-tests, linear regression, Python or R, GitHub

6. Is there anything else I need to know?